RANDOLPH J. LADNER SUCCUMBS AT ORLEANS AFTER SIEGE OF ILLNESS

Business Man and County Leader Passes Away at 54—
Was Affiliated With Many Substantial Enterprises—
Beloved By All Who Knew Him.

Hancock County was called again Sunday to surrender to the inevitable another of its leading citizens, following a long line of prominent and successful men of this city and county who have crossed the bar within a comparative short span of a few years.

Randolph J. Ladner, native of Lakeshore, aged 54 years, and son of the late Victor and Winnie Ladner, also of Lakeshore, passed away at Hotel Dieu Sunday morning at about 10:30 o'clock, surrounded by his loved ones.

He had long been ailing from time to time. Recently on several occasions his condition would take a bad turn, but the excellent care he received would cause him to rally and he would return home from hospital, apparently with new lease on life. However, a victim of heart ailment, and subsequent complications that set in, his last attack (tremors) caused him to lose a valiant fight he had put up.

Mr. Ladner was a man of indomitable will. He wanted to live. He had much to live for, family and friends and varied interests that meant so much to the community. He fought the fight bravely, like a good soldier, but in the last finality of things all was vain and he paid nature's debt.

Mr. Ladner was educated in the public schools of Hancock county. Born in the country this proved no handicap for he was self-made, self-reliant and self-determined. He was ambitious and a man of enterprise. A doer not only for himself but always with the welfare of others in mind. He created jobs for others and was never known to turn away anyone in quest of help.

He was a member of the board of directors of Hancock County Bank, his services valued highly. While he had served from time to time in various capacities, at the time of his death he was chairman of the Board of Election Commissioners of Hancock county, a trust he had held repeatedly.

He was a firm believer in the possibilities of live stock raising in Hancock county and placed his faith to the active test. His herd of live stock in and around Lakeshore was always large and consisted of animals in fine condition. It was a living exhibition of one of the many things that one may do in Hancock county.

Engaged in the piling business from 1913 to 1922, he retired for a time from active business. But a man of active mind and doing, he was soon back in business and in 1924 purchased the Bay Ice Company with a number of associates, he, however, retaining the larger and controlling portion of his business made quite a go. However, his health failing, he disposed of the ice-making plant to the present owner from Laurel, Miss., and also disposed of the ice sub-station in Waveland.

Rallying, his active business mind had to find an outlet and he purchased the Bay Canning Company, operators of shrimp and oysters. This was quite a large business and he again became quite active and successful. The business grew to such successful and large proportions that he decided to relinquish the responsibility and sold his interests to others, now known as the Marine Foods, Inc.

Associated with his sons, Ladner Bros. Fishing Camp, at the time of his passing he was interested in the Ladner-Chouest Cordwood Company, dealers in pulp wood for local paper mills, which was carried on an extensive scale.

He was that type known as the pioneer and developer of local resources. He was a man of vision and succeeded in whatever enterprise he embarked. Later years, however, he was handicapped by illness, which preyed on his mind but this apparently did not deter him from pursuing an active life. He was business man in every sense of the word.

In private life his charities were many, even though he ever attempted to conceal them. He gave freely and assisted every cause. He turned none from his door. He was ever willing to listen, to assist and his counsel was largely sought.

He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Corinne Walters; one daughter, Miss Beulah Ladner, three sons, Lloyd, Randolph J. Jr., and James. Three sisters, Mrs. Henry Green, Mrs. Robert Colly and Mrs. Victor Ladner, and three brothers, Dan, Carlos and Forest.

He was past master of Bay St. Louis Lodge, No. 429, F. & A. M., and was buried at Lakeshore cemetery from the Fahey Funeral Home.

FOUND DEAD IN ENGINE

James Marti, L. & N Employee Dies While at Work—Native of Bay St. Louis.

On Wednesday, August 15th at 6:50 P. M., James Michael Marti, son of the late Ellen Dougherty and Manuel Marti, and husband of Helen Peterson, died at Ocean Springs.

Mr. Marti had been employed by the L. & N. R. R. for twenty years and was firing an engine in the yards when evidently stricken with a heart attack, and died suddenly. The body was found slumped over in the cab of an engine in the yards at Ocean Springs.

Funeral services will be held on Friday morning at 8:45 from the Fahey Funeral Home with requiem mass at 9 A. M., from Our Lady of the Gulf Church and interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Besides his wife, Mr. Marti is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Walter Martin, of Mobile, Ala., and Mrs. Nellie Richman and Miss Mamie Marti of New Orleans.

Deceased was a native and resident of Bay St. Louis.

LOCAL TRACK PROGRAM

New Entries For This Sunday—Vic E. Lizana's Horse "Sandy" in Race.

Last Sunday the Little Fair Grounds took four entries to the race course in Biloxi, and they won all the races in which they competed.

This Sunday, August 20th there will be several new running horses which have not run on this track before. There will also be two harness horses in racing gigs to perform—well worth the price of admission to see.

Mr. Vic Lizana's horse Sandy will try to break the record. The management of Little Fair Grounds hopes to build up the harness racing as they have prospects of two other entries shortly as there seems to be quite a lot of interest taken in this feature. The track will be open every Sunday in the future.

Mrs. Pauline C. Dabney Reviews Steinke's Book

On Wednesday morning at the Episcopal Parish House, a large audience heard Mrs. Pauline Curran Dabney review Steinke's book "Grapes of Wrath."

Mrs. Dabney, daughter of the late Daniel Curran, of New Orleans and Pass Christian is a charming personality and held her audience enthralled throughout the review, the end of which came all too soon and was acclaimed a rare literary treat for Bay St. Louis book lovers.

In Bay St. Louis Monday afternoon, with Masonic ceremony. Pallbearers were A. G. Favre, Walter Gex, Magill Parillo, John Wheat, Lamar Otis and Bernard Curridge.

The funeral is said to have been one of the largest ever witnessed in Bay St. Louis, easily over two hundred automobiles in line. And the floral offerings were many, coming from all parts and from many personal and organized sources.

One can truly say, a friend is gone.

M'CARTY DECLARED NOMINEE

Nolan Taconi Second In Race For Co. Supt. of Education Withdraws

There will be no second primary for candidates in race for Hancock County Superintendent of education, although there were three candidates in the first, and neither one received a majority.

Supt. K. G. McCarty and Candidate Nolan Taconi with pluralities were eligible for the run-off, both with many friends and ardent supporters.

However, Taconi signified his decision of withdrawing from the race. Accordingly, the Democratic Executive Committee, receiving the withdrawal notice, subsequently declared McCarty, present incumbent, the nominee, and thus his election in November is assured since a primary election in this State is tantamount to election.

This will be Supt. McCarty's second consecutive term. He has made good and will continue serving the people of Hancock in the usual satisfactory manner.

'MARTIN' DIES OF OLD AGE

Familiar Sight and Character of Main Street, No More—Aged 76.

Auguste Martin, of French origin, died at his abode in St. John street, Tuesday evening, aged 76 years.

Up to a number of years ago, Martin, pronounced in the French, resided with his aged mother, and until her death he found the security of family companionship and someone to "keep house."

"Martin" was in the employ of the late Emile J. Gex, attorney, as janitor of his suite of offices and diligently a mail messenger to and from the postoffice, morning, noon and night. He missed no train's arrival of mail at the local postoffice, and it was said he frequently visited the post office "just in case."

He was very loyal to Mr. Gex, but not more so than the generosity of the heart of his employer for Mr. Gex's kindness knew no bounds.

When Mr. Gex died last year Martin felt he had lost his all and it was evident his spirit was broken and he was well forlorn.

However, friends of the poor and aged were kind, and supplied his meals and provided him with much care.

The postmaster and employees at the postoffice were solicitous and supplied him with many things until the medicines during his last illness.

Martin was of the colored race, however, light, with Caucasian blood predominating, and his mother, too, was light of color. Perhaps more so than her son.

There is quite a story, not vouchsafed for, however, in connection with Martin. He had at times told his story, with little or no variation.

He said he was born in Paris, his parents quite wealthy. He said his father was white, a gentleman not only of wealth but of position.

At his death, Martin said, the wealth that was to have been his and mother was devoured from him

THREE TO RUN IN 2ND PRIMARY

Three From Nine Candidates For Board of Supervisor, Beat 5, In Run-Off.

Supervisor T. Ed. Kellar, Beat 5, lacked only three votes to be in the second primary, Claud Monti in the general count topping off with that number and Ed Ortle, leading.

So close was this number, Mr. Kellar requested a recount of all ballots. Accordingly, the Committee, fair and square, at all times, as conclusively proven in all its dealings and transactions, readily granted the request.

After a careful checking, technicalities, qualifications and all elements including possible clerical errors, the ultimate outcome resulted in the announcement that candidates tied.

As a final result Kellar, and Monti, having obtained an equal amount of votes, will be in the run-off, August 28. This will be a three-cornered race in the second primary, an unusual situation. Each of the trio are as figures indicate, equally popular and the race will be unquestionably, one of more than ordinary interest.

SISTER OF MOTHER ST. JOHN DIES AT ORLEANS HOSPITAL

Miss McHugh had been a nurse on the staff of the Veterans Hospital at Gulfport, Miss., until a short time before her death, and when stricken ill had been removed to Mercy Hospital in New Orleans. NO RUN-OFF SHERIFF'S CONTEST

Emilio Cue Withdraws, In Interest of Party Harmony—Desires No Friction.

With the withdrawal of Emilio (Dick) Cue from the sheriff's race, leaving Horace L. Kergosien without competition in the second primary, August 29, the County Democratic Executive Committee, yet in session Friday, declared Kergosien the party's nominee.

Kergosien received 1475 votes in the first primary while Cue was somewhat of a close second, with 1273.

It is the general consensus of opinion the race would have been a most spirited one.

Both men have the same friends in a great measure and enjoy an equal partisan popularity. Mr. Cue, with great magnanimity and in the interest of party harmony, and in difference to the personal feeling of friends on both sides and general sentiment of the public, initiated the high-planned and self-sacrificing step. By so doing he won the plaudits of right-thinking people on both sides. He saved a most delicate and trying situation, and in doing so rose to great height and lasting place in the estimation of all minds.

Mr. Kergosien readily recognized the great sportsmanship so manifested and has expressed his gratitude and appreciation.

Following the general election in November the nominee will assume duties of his office the first of January, 1940.

BRIGHT YOUTH UNDERGOES ORDEAL-KNIFE.

Emile Gex, young son of Mrs. E. J. Gex who was unable to accompany his aunt, Miss Vickie Gex, on a contemplated trip to relatives in Chicago last week because of sudden illness, was later found to be suffering from appendicitis and was removed to Touro Infirmary in New Orleans where he underwent an emergency operation for the removal of a bad appendix. Latest reports are to the effect that he is rapidly recovering and expects to be home within a few days.

Missionary Society Holds Interesting Meeting For August.

Mrs. Leo W. Seal and Mrs. John Weston were co-hostesses for the month or August to the Woman's Missionary Society who met at the home of Mrs. Seal, and a well balanced meeting heard Mrs. F. W. Nelson, President, open the meeting, and read the scripture lesson.

Mrs. Donald Marshall, of New Orleans and Bay St. Louis, gave the topic "New Work in Home Fields" and gave an interesting resume of activities in Norfolk, Va., a port town, in which there are twenty Methodist churches and a co-operative council with an executive secretary. The work in Norfolk is divided into three divisions: Evangelical, Opportunity, Finding jobs for the unemployed and inter-racial.

Mrs. Marshall also told of the fine churches in Oklahoma in the Indian reservation, four of these churches having Indian pastors. Mrs. Marshall also described the mission fields in Arizona and Texas, where good work is being accomplished amongst the Mexicans there amidst handicaps, and gave a most interesting phase of the wide field for mission work at home.

RANDOLPH J. LADNER.

THE death of Randolph J. Ladner is a distinct loss to the community and noted with regret.

To every man and woman who knew him his passing is a loss for the reason the community as a whole has lost a friend.

He was a potential asset. A contributing force to every movement calculated for the onward march of city, county and the gulf coast. He was actively affiliated with many causes and the general interest was his as well as that of others.

Public-spirited, he was ever civic-conscious, unselfish and his greatest satisfaction was in work of ever building. Hardly an enterprise initiated that he helped to shape and co-operated; his name and efforts were inseparably linked in the process of betterment.

The history of the Mississippi Gulf Coast, particularly this section will not be complete without his name. His memory will never be effaced from the local annals and his memory will endure.

Our friend will be missed.

A SAD STORY.

It's a rather sad story that comes from an eastern State, where four little boys lost their lives while wading in a river.

Naturally, little boys want to go in the water and play. They should be given the opportunity to do so under safe circumstances. It is a part of the duty that rests upon adults.

Parents should not hesitate to warn their boys and girls about the danger that lurks in water. Whether it is a river or the ocean, a pond or a lake, danger lurks for children. Even good swimmers should not underestimate the peril that water sports entail.

REFRESHING!

IT might be helpful, during the present hot summer days, to reflect that cities and countries in the northern part of the United States and Canada are now making plans for snow removal next winter.

While it seems a far cry from sweltering heat waves to heavy snowfalls, the cycle revolves and changes occur. It is positively refreshing, amid beads of perspiration, to think of shoveling snow.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

LATEST official statistics estimate 10,600,000 unemployed in the United States. The lowest number of unemployed in recent years was 8,282,000 in 1937 and the largest number was 13,271,000 in 1933. Prior to 1929 the rate of unemployment had been between one and two million for seven years. The figures are from the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics.

FHA INTEREST.

FEDERAL Housing Administration has reduced interest rates of mortgages on large-scale rental projects. Twelve thousand banks, building and loan associations and other lending institutions, have been notified of the lowered rates of interest.

There ought to be a special section, Mr. Satan, for people who forget to return borrowed books.

The best swimmer is the one who exercises extraordinary precautions in order to remain alive to swim next summer.

About the most interesting phenomena connected with motorists is the senseless horn-blowing that follows a traffic jam.

Watching the clock has gotten few people jobs and has caused a lot of workers to forget their work, and, eventually, lost their pay checks.

The Jackson Daily News, "Mississippi's Greatest Newspaper," supporting Bailey for Governor has turned its batteries for Conner. It says he will win.

Two more weeks' politics and we may go back to work and resume our normal pursuit of happiness. And may we spend as much time and effort in further building and developing our beautiful Mississippi Gulf Coast.

August finds many visitors along the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Seafood is plentiful, bathing and boating at best and the season seems to be at its height. The remaining vacation season is short, fast drawing to a close and the many are taking advantage of the limited time.

Only one newspaper in Mississippi the Clarksdale Daily Register, for Snider, has gone over to the Paul Johnson camp. By the way, that's Gov. Snider's own newspaper and it was the only newspaper supporting him in his candidacy. Not much strength for Johnson.

All indications point to Mike Conner for Governor. He and Gov. Hugh L. White made two of the best governors Mississippi ever had. Hancock county carried for Conner in the first primary. It will go overwhelmingly for him in the second.

HARRISON AND WHITE.

SENATOR Pat Harrison and Gov. Hugh White are not trying to dictate to the voters of Mississippi how they should cast their ballots on August 29th.

Neither has ever aspired to be a dictator. Neither has ever been insolent or domineering with his friends.

Pat Harrison and Hugh White are merely expressing their opinion as to who is the best man to serve as Governor and carry on the plans and policies that have brought progress and prosperity to Mississippi in recent years.

The thinking voters of Mississippi have the utmost confidence in Pat Harrison and Hugh White. They showed that by electing them to the places they now hold.

The thinking people of Mississippi respect the judgment of these two men.

Hugh White is nearing the finish of four years of unselfish public service. It is but natural that he should desire to see enthroned the principles and policies he has put into effect. He will leave office as the most popular and successful Governor within the memory of 95 per cent of our qualified voters. He will leave the office much poorer in purse, because he has spent freely of his own funds to promote the public welfare.

Pat Harrison, Mississippi's foremost living statesman, veteran of a thousand hard-fought battles for the people in the halls of national legislation, is growing old and grey in public service. He desires no political honor higher than what he now holds. His service has always been unselfish and backed by mature judgment. He is a safe man to follow under any circumstances, as has been proven many times.

Neither of these men is prompted by a partisan spirit of selfish purpose in supporting Mike Conner in the second primary.

If personal feelings entered into the fight both would today be opposing Mike Conner for the Governorship.

Conner, it will be recalled, twice opposed White for Governor.

Conner opposed Harrison for the Senate. It just so happens that both Harrison and White are big enough to thrust aside any semblance of personal feeling and put the welfare of Mississippi above all other things.

Only big men can do that, and Pat Harrison and Hugh White are the biggest men we have in public life in Mississippi today.

We can well afford to respect their judgment. They have never yet given us bad advice and never will.—Jackson News.

FOR FARMERS TO REMEMBER.

THE "lending" bill, killed by the House of Representatives, would have augmented the flow of government funds into the channels of trade, although for many months to come government spending, under previous legislation, will average more than $250,000,000 a month.

It might be observed that the "lending" measure, as passed by the Senate, was essentially a farm aid bill. Out of the 1,615 million dollars, 1,190 were for farm tenancy, rural rehabilitation, rural electrification and reclamation. Even the House version of the bill, which provided 1,950 million dollars, allotted $750,000,000 for agricultural purposes.

It should be noted, for the record, that the President recommended 960 million for agriculture's benefit, the Senate provided 1,190 million and the House refused to pass a measure that included only 750 million for the farmers.

CONGRESSIONAL NEGATIVE.

THE session of Congress that adjourned early this month did not demonstrate any ability to solve the problems that confront the nation.

It is true that the Congress gave an exhibition of independence, in regards to executive recommendations, but when it killed suggested legislation it failed to provide substitutes.

Democracy suffers in the world today because of the apparent inability of democratic governments to function effectively and nowhere is this more apparent than when legislation without, at the same time, exhibiting the ability to pass satisfactory legislation to meet given situations.

It is possible that the Congress of the United States will be divided into three or more groups of members, none able to pass legislation because of objections on the part of other groups. It is also evident that such a development would almost fatally affect responsive government.

HIGH, HEAVY AND FAST!

HERE are a few straws that show that aviation is changing the possibilities of warfare:

An Army 22-ton bomber recently flew from Burbank, Calif., to New York, 2,500 miles, in 9 hours, 14 minutes, 30 seconds.

The world record for payload carrying is held by an Army "flying fortress," which soared 8,200 feet with 31,203-pound payload.

Another "flying fortress" recently averaged 260 miles an hour with a payload of 11,023 pounds.

The first event, listed above, demonstrates that crossing the Atlantic or transferring planes from one coast to the other, is a matter of hours if efficiency arises. The others demonstrate that planes can carry a bomb-payload that will create havoc wherever it is dropped.

CAN THE PAST HELP US?

INTELLIGENT people profit by past experience.

The record of the past writes of the experience of the human race and thinking persons study the record in order to find possible solutions for present problems.

This leads to the reader, who undoubtedly faces difficult issues, and the query, "Do you seek to profit by what others have recorded about their own experiences?"

You won't find the answers as plain as two and two but you will probably discover some ideas that will help you.

The loyalty of its employees is one of the best assets that a business, large or small, can possess.

Hollywood Notes.

THE role that Sophie Tucker was offered, according to rumor, in "Listen Kids," has been assigned to Marjorie Rambeau.

Franchot Tone or Burgess Meredith will probably have the title role in "Edgar Allen Poe," instead of Claude Rains who was originally announced for the part.

Some of the cast in Shirley Temple's "Bluebird," have been announced. Gale Sondergaard will have the part of Tyllette, the cat, and Edie Collins will be Tyle, the dog. Spring Byington is the mother and Sybil Jason is Angela.

Freddie Bartholomew and Terry Kilburn will have part in "Swiss Family Robinson," which goes into production next month.

"Class Will Tell" is the story of a spendthrift son who is accompanied to college by a body-guard who is supposed to protect him from seducing women. Wayne Morris will be the private detective and Jeffrey Lynn the wealthy boy. Jane Wyman and Jane Bryan will be in the cast.

A party is to be given on the eighteenth of this month celebrating Gus Edwards' sixtieth birthday. A number of his porteges, including George Jessel, Lila Lee and Walter Winchell, will fly to the coast to be present.

Orson Welles' first picture will be Joseph Conrad's "Heart of Darkness."

Thomas Mitchell has been assigned a role in "Virgil In The Night," in which Carole Lombard has the lead. Elsa Lanchester will in all probability also be in the cast.

Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd, wooden puppets, are scheduled for another picture in October. It will be called "Charlie McCarthy, Detective."

Errol Flynn was a visitor to Manhattan recently and at that time was planning an eight weeks' vacation to South America.

A series of one reel pictures about an elephant called, "Babar," is to be made. They are animated cartoons and are adapted from children's stories written and illustrated by Jean de Brunhoff.

Don Ameche is to have the lead in the next Claudette Colbert picture because of his good work in "Midnight." As a return favor, Fred McMurray will be loaned by his studio for the lead opposite Alice Faye in "Little Old New York."

Melvyn Douglas will probably be chosen for the lead in the screen version of "Half Moon Street," a stage play that is breaking box office records in London.

Gui Ignon, a Belgian artist in Los Angeles, was in the next cell to Edith Cavell when the nurse was shot as a spy during the World War. In the picture he is cast as a spy of the Allies.

The Leslie Howards are leaving for England and Mrs. Howard says she will not return. Mr. Howard has a contract to make several pictures next fall for RKO.

Leatrice Joy, an important star of the silent movies, is returning to the screen after a ten years' absence. She will have a good role in Deanna Durbin's "First Love."

For the first time Binnie Barnes got top billing, in her screen career. She is co-starred with Warner Baxter in "He Married His Wife."

Richard Dix has his ups and downs but he is having ups now since his "Man of Conquest."

Scuppernongs Are Ripe at Brown's Vineyard Just Now.

Generations have feasted on the Bay St. Louis scuppernong, that grows not only in abundant fruit but noted in particular for sweet and delicious flavor.

New Orleans people who have been coming to this section of the Coast can well remember back to those happy childhood days never to return, with what expectancy, well into ecstasy, did they feast on the scuppernong.

The Bay St. Louis Indians with papoose, and burdened with the baskets they wove, sold the fruit picked from their own vineyard and sold from a tin container at 5 cents per pint. And how many pints would buy! Those days are gone, so are the Indians, but the delicious scuppernong still survives time and custom and we of the older generation live in the memory of halcyon days.

Just now Brown's Vineyard, on the Old Spanish Trail is the largest in this section and the most prolific, there is an unusually heavy crop, ready for picking.

Mrs. Brown, the proprietress, is selling in small and large quantities to the public—wholesale and retail.

The public is invited to visit the place and Mrs. Brown will be pleased to serve all who may call, from the purchaser who might take only a small quantity to the largest.

Average person prefers a man as driver, survey shows; 78 per cent of women favor him.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

One Can Only Dip In A Bathtub.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 13, 1939.
Editor Sea Coast Echo:

Dear Sir:—Could you not stir up a strong enough sentiment for a municipal pier at the Bay?

Long Beach has a beach park and pier and attracts many visitors who spend money.

The Bay, Waveland and Clermont have no beach, only a road along the water, yet from the Pass on to Ocean Springs there is a sandy beach.

The Bay could overcome this handicap by having a large pier or if that is impossible—why not build from the foot of each street out into the water short piers with small platforms and steps so people back of beach could enjoy your wonderful bathing. By having the piers (short) at foot of streets they would belong to town and be free. The hotel and boarding houses would benefit thus, indirectly all business.

As it is one only can dip in the bath tub, ride along road and see the favored few enjoy a dip.

Very truly,

MARION LUCK.

Harrison and Bilbo.

(Jackson News)

Pat Harrison has lived long enough not to expect political gratitude. He knows it is non-existent.

Back in the early days of the first Roosevelt administration Theodore Gimmere Bilbo was down-and-out, dead-broke, hungry, living alternately on the charity of friends and forbearance of creditors. He had even worn out his welcome among home people.

Bilbo went to Washington in search of a job.

Although Pat Harrison was under no political or personal obligations whatsoever to "the man" Bilbo he got him a job.

It was a nice job, a job for which Bilbo was in no way qualified, yet it paid him a nice salary. He was made Pastmaster-General in the department of agriculture and again commenced to eat regularly.

Then he got cocky again. Like a frozen serpent warmed to life at the bosom of his benefactor, he turned. Bilbo was elected to the Senate, chiefly because of the cock-sureness and stupidity of the campaign management of Hubert Stevens.

Again Pat Harrison befriended him. He hoped that Bilbo might receive better committee assignments in the Senate than usually given to a new member, and in many other ways manifested a friendly and helpful spirit.

Was Bilbo grateful?

Not for one blessed moment.

At the first opportunity Bilbo turned viciously on two of Pat Harrison's friends, Judge E. O. Sykes and Judge Edwin Holmes, trying successfully to defeat their confirmation in the Senate.

Also reflected on what happened when Pat Harrison was a candidate for re-election.

Bilbo, the man whom he had befriended, was turning heaven and earth to elect his opponent.

Well, folks, no use going into all the details of those so-called happenings. You remember them anyhow. This self-same Bilbo the ingrate is now trying to put Paul Johnson in the Governor's chair, a man whom at heart he despises, yet he hopes it will in some way help him when he offers for re-election.

Think on these things. It might help you in reaching some righteous conclusions.

IT'S TRUE!

By Wiley Padan

New York, N.Y.—"IT'S TRUE! that Cambodia's Temple of Angkor Vat, one of the most colorful and mystifying remnants of a forgotten civilization, was recreated for a love scene between Robert Taylor and Hedy Lamarr in M-G-M's 'Lady of the Tropics,'" says Wiley Padan. "Miss Lamarr mastered three pages of dialogue in the Annamese language, native tongue of Cochinchina, for her role in this picture."

MISSISSIPPI'S RIVIERA.

FROM the little town of Waveland Stretching East along the shore.

With its cities, towns and places, Streaming forty miles or more, Mississippi's Riviera

Braids our southern, sunny strand Like some rich, embroidered garment.

Touched by fairy's magic hand.

Bay Saint Louis to Biloxi, A high beach, live oaks, moss o'er-grown,

Is the glory of the southland—Mississippi's very own.

Bay Saint Louis, ancient, holy, Famous as a college town,

Dotting Bay, the Sound and setting Like a jewel in a crown.

Rises from the peaceful waters Lovely city, Pass Christian,

Home of culture, wealth and beauty, Fit abode for gods and man.

Gulfport's famous for her commerce, Transportation, trade and piers,

Filling Captain Hardy's vision—Seaport for a hundred years.

Foreign and domestic commerce, Real values, solid worth,

Also was Captain Jones' ambition—Trade with nations of the earth.

Beautiful Beauvoir is weeping O'er her noble spirits flown,

But beyond their peaceful sleeping, God keeps watch above his own.

Ocean Springs to "Singing River," Passagosa's murmuring stream,

Mingling with the waves forever, In that deathless song and dream.

We have heard of old Biloxi, Oysters, seafood, Sound and Bay,

With its breezes from the ocean Driving weariness away.

Like the queen of ancient Sheba In the temple wrought with gold,

In the midst of grace and glory Said—"The half has not been told."

From the famous Crescent City, Speeding east along the way,

You will find a garden city In Biloxi on the Bay.

In the springtime or the winter, Nature woos with many a smile,

As you journey on the highway, Stop to think or drink awhile.

Where the mermaids and the maidens Entertain all passers-by

With the poetry of motion In their heels and charming eye.

Where the porpoise like some law-yer Blows the jelly fish away,

But the big boys know his spouting's Just the same old roundelay.

Ole Biloxi's ancient glory With her modern upward trend,

Illustrates a wondrous story, Fact and fiction's super-blend.

Like some rare and ancient flower, Evergreen along the shore,

Still unfolding, ev'ry hour, Bountiful forevermore.

Ole Biloxi, lucky city, Best of empire in her day,

Glams and glows with golden glory That shall never pass away.

Buena Vista, Ole Biloxi, Sound the tocsin, draw the bow,

Health and happiness forever, As the tides shall come and go!

Mr. M. L. Richardson has moved his family to his home town Hattiesburg where he has a position as teacher in one of the schools there.

Miss Dorothy Darden came here for a vacation, but had to be rushed back to the city to undergo an operation for appendicitis. Her friends and Alvin Ladner are happy for her speedy recovery.

Twenty boy scouts came in with Mr. Harrison for a week and will spend the time at the home of Mr. Artie Russell.

Miss Emma Clay went to the city to attend the nuptials of her nephew, Clay McGinnis.

Waveland Public schools will open for the 1939-1940 session on Friday, September 1st so as to give Monday (Labor Day) for a holiday.

C. O. Dufour and C. K. Herlihy have purchased jointly a speed boat from Ed. P. Orte. They are both working very hard repairing this boat so they may enter the boat races next season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ames Perrone of Algiers, spent their honeymoon here. Mrs. Perrone is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bourgeois and while here a miscellaneous shower was given for the bride. Many beautiful and costly presents were received.

Miss Florence Shubert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Shubert will be married to Mr. Leroy Van Court of New Orleans. The wedding will take place in St. Peter and St. Paul Church on August 20th at five o'clock in the evening. A reception will follow the ceremony.

Mrs. Edna Stander, her son, Adolph and Claire Wambagans were guests Sunday of "Skater" Sherwood at Campo Bueno. They found the coast as alluring and enchanting as ever.

It is noticeable that Waveland has quite a few soft ball fans. Many of the enthusiasts motored to Gulfport Sunday to see the games between the Jax Brewetts and Style Mart girls from Kentucky. Also the picked all star team of the Coast and the Style Mart boys of Kentucky.

A delightful party was given Friday evening at the summer residence of Mr. John Cost. A large group of children attended and were served ice cream and cake by Catherine Ladner. Those attending were Anita, Earl, Vernon, Edith, Catherine and Marion Ladner; Margaret, Zelida, Bernice and Mabel Bourgeois; Teddy, Lester and Dolores Rolph; Lother Hornuff and Jimmie B. McFie.

We deeply regret the passing of Mr. Randolph Ladner our friend and neighbor. He was widely known in this section, and the entire community is sympathetic with his family.

THE STORY OF VERNON AND IRENE CASTLE SUN-MON.

At A. & G. Theater—Film—ed With Astaire and Rogers Starred.

Adhering closely to the real-life story of Vernon and Irene Castle, world-famous dancing team of a quarter century ago, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers' new co-starring vehicle, "The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle," now ready for the screen, is reported to be the finest musical film of recent years and the greatest of all the pictures in which these two favorites have teamed.

Ideally suited to portray the roles of their noted terpsichorean predecessors, Astaire and Miss Rogers interpret many of the dances that the Castles created and made famous. The Castle Walk, the Castle Tango, The Texas Tommy, the Tango and the Maxine, are among the more spectacular of these routines and they are presented in authentic reproductions of the cafes and ballrooms where the Castles had their biggest successes.

Nearly twenty-four of the most popular tunes of twenty-five years ago are also featured in the picture, either as background music, dance music, or as song by the two stars. "Waitin' for the Robert E. Lee," "By the Light of the Silvery Moon," "Missouri Waltz," "Oh, You Beautiful Baby," "Darktown Strutters' Ball" and other hits of the pre-war period are revived in the film. One current number, "Only When You're In My Arms," by Con Conrad, Herman Ruby and Bert Kalmear, is sung by Fred Astaire.

With this wealth of dance and song presentation, and with its absorbingly authentic story, "The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle" promises to be one of the most notable of modern screen offerings.

A brilliant group of players supports the two stars, with Edna May Oliver and Walter Brennan heading the featured cast as the Castles' booking agent and their faithful servant, respectively. Lew Fields, playing himself; Janette Beecher, Etienne Girardot, Donald MacBride, Victor Varconi, Douglas Walton, Frances Mercer and other well-known players have important roles.

To The Voters of Hancock County

As most of you know, I have withdrawn from the Second Primary of the race for the Sheriff's Office in Hancock County. I did this because I felt that the interest of my friends and the County as a whole, would best be served by not making a second race.

To all, I want to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the kind consideration shown me in the Campaign, and to my friends—my sincerest thanks for the effort put forth in my behalf.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

The most careful cook will at times have left-overs which can be made into attractive as well as palatable dishes. Of these, bread and potatoes are the most common. Save all stale bread, dry in the oven, put through the grinder and keep in cans for future use for scalloped dishes, croquettes, puddings, or pancakes. Potatoes can always be used in soups, hash or salad.

Lamb Hash in Spinach Ring
3 cups cold roast lamb, cut in cubes.

1 cup cold cooked potatoes, cut in cubes.

1/2 green pepper, chopped

1 cup roast gravy

1 cup of tomato soup

1/2 of a garlic clove

Salt and pepper

3 cups Worcestershire sauce

1 tablespoon salad oil

2 hard boiled eggs, sliced

Remove skin and gistle from the cold lamb, cut in cubes. Put the gravy and soup in a skillet. Simmer the garlic in the gravy for about 10 minutes. Remove the garlic and add the diced meat and vegetable. Season with salt and pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Cook slowly for 15 minutes. Add the salad oil to the hot seasoned spinach, that is well drained. Pack into a ring mold. Set in pan of hot water until serving time. Turn out on a platter. Fill the center with the hash and garnish with slices of egg.

Cheese Potato Croquettes

1 cup grated cheese

2 cups mashed potatoes

2 tablespoons chopped celery

1 tablespoon green pepper, chopped

1/2 teaspoon paprika

1/2 teaspoon white pepper

1 egg

1 tablespoon cracker crumbs

Mix the above named ingredients in the order given. Shape as desired. Fry in hot fat.

Chicken Stew

Cut a chicken of about four pounds weight in pieces and stew until tender. Remove the meat from the bones, cutting the meat up in pieces of uniform size. Saute 2 sliced onions and 1 seeded green pepper in 3 tablespoons of fat. When they are soft add a medium sized can of tomatoes and 3 cloves of garlic, minced fine. Season to taste with salt, sugar, a pinch of powdered cloves and a bay leaf. Simmer for 1/2 hour then remove bay leaf and add an 8-ounce can of mushrooms, liquid and 1/2 of a No. 2 can of corn. Whole kernels are better than crushed. Next put in your pieces of chicken. Heat thoroughly, add more seasoning if necessary and stir all ingredients together. This dish reheats perfectly.

Spice Cake

1 cup shortening

2 cups sugar

4 eggs

3 cups cake flour

2 teaspoons baking powder

1/2 teaspoon salt

1 teaspoon cloves

1 teaspoon allspice

1 teaspoon cinnamon

3 tablespoons shaved citron

1/2 cup fruit juice

Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and cream well. Add before measuring; then sift flour, beaten egg yolks. Sift flour once, baking powder, salt and spices together. Add citon to flour and add, alternately to the creamed mixture, with fruit juice and whites. Pour into a loaf pan lined with greased paper. Bake 45 to 60 minutes in an oven 350 degrees.

For lemon frosting, cream 2 tablespoons of butter and 1 egg yolk. Beat egg whites, add 2 tablespoons of powdered sugar, beat until stiff. Combine mixture. Add juice of 1/2 lemon and grated rind of 1 lemon. Stir in 3/4 cups powdered sugar. Mix well. Spread on cake.

Cafe Parfait

Peppermint Lime Ice Cream

Dissolve 1 package of lime-flavored gelatin in 1-1 1/2 cups of water. When slightly thickened fold in 2 cups of whipped cream and 3-4 cup of broken peppermint candy. Freeze.

Fill parfait glasses two-thirds full of vanilla ice cream; over the ice cream pour 2 tablespoons of coffee sauce and fill the remainder of the glass with whipped cream. Decorate with on maraschino cherry and nut meats.

Coffee Sauce

To 1 cup of strong coffee, add 1 tablespoon of sugar, reduce to 1/2 cup by boiling.

The Board took up for consideration the matter of issuing notes for the Kiln Consolidated School District of Hancock County, Mississippi, in the amount of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), pursuant to the provisions of the qualified electors of said school district, and the resolution of the Board of Trustees of said school district filed with this Board; whereupon Supervisor Wheat offered and moved the adoption of the following resolution:

A resolution declaring the necessity of borrowing the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) and issuing notes of the Kiln Consolidated School District therefor, for the purpose of supplementing Federal Funds for the construction of a school building and repairs to be made and equipment and fixtures to be purchased for the school building of said school district.

ED. P. ORTTE INDICATES STRENGTH WITH LEAD OF 76 VOTES OVER EIGHT CANDI- DATES FOR SUPERVISOR.

Well-Known and Enterprising Citizen of This County
For About 24 Years Ready for Second Primary.

Below is a copy of article this paper published, March 10, 1939, when Mr. Ortte formally entered race.

(From Sea Coast Echo)

Ed. P. Ortte, one of the best known and progressive citizens of this section of the county, announces his candidacy in this issue of The Sea Coast Echo for the office of supervisor, Beat 5, Hancock County.

Mr. Ortte is well known and hard-ly needs introduction at our hands. Yet a young man, he has had an active and varied career, a force that is potential and, if elected, will serve in good stead as a contributing factor to the further growth and development of Hancock county, particularly this section of the Gulf Coast.

He attended Jesuit High School at New Orleans and later studied law at Tulane. At this juncture the world war broke out and in due time he volunteered army service, serving over a period of two years and three months. Of this time he saw thirteen months active service in France, during which time he was wounded. Later he received a citation for bravery.

He has been quite successful in managing and financing business and his various ventures from time to time have proven this.

In 1937 he was elected commander of Clermont Bontemps Post, American Legion, in Hancock county. He was re-elected in 1938 and is at present still serving in like capacity.

Having served in various business capacities we find him identified with various business enterprise. He is a member of the board of directors of the Plaquemine Development Company of Louisiana. Was president of the Gulf Coast Shrimpers and Oystermen's Association until last week when he resigned.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, Jr., and little son, after spending a great part of the summer here visiting with Mrs. Lacoste's mother, have gone to Columbia, Miss., where Mr. Lacoste has been appointed Project Engineer of a large undertaking there. Mrs. Gex is the former Laurin Gex, daughter of Mrs. E. J. Gex and the late E. J. Gex.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Weston and little son, John Henry, have returned from an extended trip through Virginia and Tennessee where they also visited their daughter, Lucy, at Camp Sequoyia, near Bristol, Tenn. Miss Ann Weston, who also accompanied her parents, remained at Camp Sequoyia and will return with Miss Lucy in the next few weeks.

—Mr. L. H. Dinkelstein, executive of the Postal Telegraph Company of New Orleans, now retired, and lifelong friend of Mayor and Mrs. G. Y. Blaize, who has been visiting at the Blaize home in Hancock street, will leave for Chicago Friday and later will visit the World's Fair in New York. Mr. Dinkelstein says he will not doubt enjoy the trip, but will be glad to be back in Bay St. Louis with his many friends who are always glad to have him with them.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph (Cotton) Blaize, accompanied by Miss Merli Kergosien, left the latter part of last week after a visit of several weeks in Bay St. Louis. They will motor through the beautiful Rio Grande Valley, visiting in San Antonio, Texas, and later in Carlsbad, New Mexico, where they intend to view the renowned Carlsbad Caverns, which Robert Ripley, in a recent broadcast, described for the first time over radio transmitter set up in the Caverns.

In order he may devote more time to his candidacy and not to associate the union with politics, a very thoughtful consideration.

He has at present business interests in Florida that is so only active but constantly expanding. Altho his major business interests are away he does his banking, buying and all trading in Hancock county a firm believer in spending his money where he makes his home and where he enjoys all the privileges of civic improvement and protection.

"I am a great believer in spending money in the place I call home," he said. "Also a believer in equalization privileges of all men, dividing one's benefits with your fellowmen in your home community and mainly, always subscribing to the golden rule, of doing unto others as you have them do unto you."

He was a candidate for the same office prior to the last election, entering the race only seven weeks preceding first primary and received a most flattering vote, a substantial testimonial of the high and popular esteem in which he is held. His services are ever at the disposal of the public, and no civic or other cause has ever received a refusal when asked for aid. It will be remembered the show and advertising project he successfully negotiated benefit of the local hospital some time back, netting several hundred dollars.

Mr. Ortte is unselfish, an unceasing worker and gives his time, ability and frequently of his means to all cause appealing. Such liberality and unselfishness is bound to merit recognition and stamps him as most unusual type of citizen and friend.

His candidacy is commended to the consideration of the public and the voters are asked to give him their support.

(Approved by Ed. P. Ortte)

To the Good People of Hancock County:

August 15, 1939.

I WANT to express my thanks and appreciation to one and all who voted for me in the first primary in the race for Representative from Hancock county. It was a fine vote of confidence and I shall ever remember and be grateful.

As is known, I am in the second run-off, August 29, and I am going to ask for the same support, and, in addition for the votes of many others who could not see their way to vote for me in the first by reason of personal affiliations and reasons which have been removed with only two in the race.

I shall be deeply thankful, and, if elected, will ever strive to prove myself worthy of the voters confidence and serve to their best interests.

With appreciation,

Otho Rester

Candidate Representative from Hancock County, Miss.

August, 16, 1939.

TO THE VOTERS OF BEAT 5.
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I wish to thank you through the medium of the Sea Coast Echo for the splendid vote given me Tuesday, August 8th. While I was not able to make a personal call on any of the Voters due to the fact that I had a rather extensive Road Program to look after and other matters pertaining to our work.

Yet I received a splendid vote which is evidence that the people of this beat endorse my efforts in trying to bring about a reduction in taxation and at the same time carry on our civic improvements, and balancing our budget. I am setting aside any activities that I have from now until August 29, the date of the last Primary, in order that I might devote my time to my campaign. I believe that it is to your interest to go to the polls on August 29, and vote for Keller. Keller's interest in this beat is your interest. Vote for Keller on August 29, and get results. Thanking you for past favors,

I am yours for service,

T. E. KELLAR Sr.

TO THE CITIZENS OF HANCOCK COUNTY

I WANT to take this means of expressing my appreciation to those of you who voted for me in my race for Representative of Hancock County, in the First Primary, and through whose support and influence I am now a candidate in the Second Primary to be held on August 29th. To those of you who did not vote for me in the First Primary, I desire to state that I have nothing but the best of goodwill, and I hope that you may now be in a position to support me in the Second Primary.

I hope to see each one of you between now and August 29th, and have a personal talk with you, but since the time is limited, I am afraid that I will be unable to see all of you. If I should fail to see you, I want you to be assured that if I am elected as your Representative, my sole desire is to be so far as I am able—of benefit to you, our County and our State.

While I am a young man, and some of you may have doubt as to my ability because of lack of age, I feel that a man of twenty-five years of age, which I am, and with the legal training and education which I have had, is duly qualified for the office.

I shall appreciate your continued support in the race.
